Who's watching?

How Australia record their wildlife, and what the records leave out.

Kenn Kaung Myat Zaw | FIT3179 | Oct 2026

Introduction

Audience: General readers in Melbourne

Purpose: What, who, where, when, and why of Australia's wildlife records

Birds 60%

Insects | Mammals | Flowering Plants | Fish | Reptiles | Fungi

(TM) Why wildlife records matter

Contents

1. What
2. Who
3. How
4. Where
5. When
6. Why

End: Conclusion

Color Key
- Records
- Species
- People
- Government
- Contrast

(1) What gets recorded

Records

Stacked Area: Sightings per year 1990-2024

Butterfly:
Y- Species
Y- Records

(2) Who records it

← 44 from e-bird
← Atlas

Heatmap:

(3) How volunteers record

FrogID spotlight panel: 1 | 2 | 3 | 4

Paired Waffles
← 36%
← 26%

Calender Heatmap

Heatmap: Season

(4) Where people look

Bin Map

Choropleth Map

Lollipop:

Symbol Map

(5) When wildlife is recorded

Ridgeline:

Heatmap:

Dot Map

Play

(6) Why every record counts

Dot Plot

Season Map:

Legend:

Play

(End) Conclusion: Look beyond the birds

180M	24x
1,000x	5x

Data Sources | Method Notes | About